From the Old North State.

Lime as a Fertilizer.

PALERMO, ROWAN, Co., N. C.
January 18th, 1867.

MR. EDITOR:—The enclosed letter, from Dr. Powell, on the use of lime as a fertilizer, although not intended for publication, contains information of so much practical value, that I hope you will give it a place in the columns of your paper, and that other Editors will follow your example. I have no experience in "composting," but I desire to add one or two suggestions derived from the recent perusal of a pamphlet, on the "Agriculture of North Carolina" written by the late State Geologist Prof. Emmons, and published in 1860, which, I think, the present Legislature would do well to republish and scatter broadcast over the State.

It is a well known fact that compost heaps, by the time they have properly fermented or rotted, are reduced to one-half their original bulk. This has usually taken place at the end of some 10 or 12 weeks and is owing to the escape of the gases and water, which may be often seen and smelt, during the process of decomposition. These gases are the most valuable fertilizers, and should by all means be fixed and retained in the heap. Among others that escape, I will enumerate carbonic acid and the salts of ammonia. The following table will show the organic elements contained in 1,000 pounds each, of the agricultural and other products enumerated, and serve to illustrate the importance of paying the greatest attention to the chemical changes produced, in the compost heaps:

	Carbon,	Hydrogen,	Oxygen,	Nitrogen,
Hay	458	50	337	15
Potatoes	440	58	447	15
Oats	507	64	367	22
Wheat	461	58	434	23
Animal bodies	550	70	160	220

Now ammonia is a compound of two of the above elements—nitrogen and hydrogen,—and guano contains about 34 per cent. of its salts.—Lime disengages ammonia, in compost heaps, and various devices have been used to fix and retain it. Weak solutions of copperas (sulphate of iron) or gypsum (sulphate of lime) sprinkled over the heaps, will effect this object; but Prof. Emmons says "covering the dry manure in the soil answers the same purpose." After mixing the stable manure, litter &c., and the lime, as Dr. Powell does, I have seen it elsewhere suggested, to interpose at certain distances, in the heap a thin layer of any kind of soil; and in addition to thus top dressing the heap, to cover it, and protect it from the rains, as the sulphate of ammonia, thus formed, is quite soluble.

Carbonic acid is composed of the other two ingredients, in the above table—oxygen and carbon. The lime absorbs this acid and fixes and retains it. It is not improper to add that guano, also contains something over 26 per cent. of lime. By composting with lime, we thus see that we get at least 50 per cent. of the virtues of guano, besides the very large amount of vegetable matter decomposed and ready for use.

Very truly,
J. G. RAMSAY.

CATAWBA STATION, N. C.,
Jan. 14th, 1867.

HON. J. G. RAMSAY, Dear Sir:—Our business copartner, Mr. Sherrill, requests me to answer your inquiries in relation to the best mode of using lime as a fertilizer. From what experience I have from its use for ten years, I would say that the most economical mode is in the way of compost heaps, made by mixing, as intimately as possible,—say one bushel of lime to a good four-horse load of half-rotted manure from the farm-yard or stable, leaves, litter or, in fact, any vegitable matter. I am now cleaning up my farm yard, and putting up the gleanings in pens in this way, to be put in corn drills in March. I am also using lime as a top-dressing for wheat, when there is a vegitable mold or grass. When I am late fallowing and there is, consequently, a large amount of grass on the ground unrotted at the time of seeding, I am liming with 20 or 25 bushels to the acre; which amount I think is good for a few years: as the quantity of lime is beneficial only in proportion to the amount of vegetable matter upon which to act, although a surplus does no immediate harm and, in time, all comes into action.

Last fall I visited the country above Baltimore with a view of ascertaining the best mode of using lime, and there found the farmers using about 50 bushels to the acre, sowing it broad-cast on their fallow fields, before breaking up the land. This they do about every seventh year, before sowing wheat; adding all the compost manure they can make. They are thus raising from 30 to 40 bushels of wheat to the acre. For root crops, such as potatoes, turnips, beets, wortzel, carrots, &c., they compost altogether.

Lime costs 45 cents per bushel at the great "Texas Lime Kilns," above Baltimore, and corn is worth 80 cents and wheat $2,00 per bushel. Here we sell it at 25 cents at the kiln, and corn is worth $1,00 and wheat $3,00—so if the farmers of Maryland and Pennsylvania can make it pay there, we certainly can here. I have for years looked upon it as our only means of improving our lands, and have been at great expense so far, to manufacture it at a price that will make it available to our farmers generally, and am happy to find so many of our prominent men, as yourself, taking an interest in it. We are now enlarging our means of manufacturing, and will soon be able to turn out a larger amount, though not adequate to the demand. We also purpose getting up a "Circular on the use of Lime as a Fertilizer," which we will send you as soon as ready.

Yours very truly,
A. M. POWELL.

Mr. Schofield, of the House of Representatives, in a late speech, took occasion to express his disgust at Paine, for not making a better job of it, when he undertook to kill Mr. Seward.

THE SENTINEL.

Monday Evening, Jan. 28, 1867.

The Situation.

The disunion Radicals and Holdenites in this State, are likely to be disappointed in their mad schemes to some extent, in breaking up the State organizations of the South. Men possessed of more brains than bile in the Republican party, everywhere scout the ruinous attempt, to gratify the feculent, low-down malice of the so-called loyal disunionists. The Republican party has doubtless become greatly demoralized, and lacks a good deal of what it has been in moral force, though its numbers are still large, yet there are still many sober, discreet and honest men in it, who are not ready to sacrifice the government, and under the Republican guise to destroy all its Republican character, to gratify the despotic and demagogical members of the party.

In the midst of the hurricane of passion and madness which has prevailed, and the miserable lying and meanness of the so-called Southern Loyalists, (a meaner set of demagogues never cursed any land,) we have steadily clung to the idea, that the great body of the Northern people would never sanction the ultra purposes of the Radicals,—could never give their support to their dangerous designs in accomplishing the destruction of the government.

It is now palpable, that those mar-plots in the Republican party, Stevens, Ashley, Butler, Boutwell, &c., are not to be henceforth the rulers of the party. The great body of the party is gradually shaking them off, and now that their malign influence is fully felt and seen, we are inclined to believe that ultraism and passion, will be less potential in the next Congress than in the present. One thing is certain, the more Radical the Congress is, the weaker the party will become, and the only hope for them to defeat the restoration of the Democracy to power, is by the adoption of a more conservative course.

The territorializing schemes of Mr. Stevens, Mr. Ashley and the Holden-Pool faction, will be quelched. Mr. Stevens will retire from the contest chagrined and beaten, and hence forward will proceed to devise some other ultra measure to keep the country in commotion.

Yet we do not look for quiet or any satisfactory settlement of the difficulties of the nation, this side the Presidential election. The impeachment and territorializing schemes and the destruction of the Supreme Court, we regard as almost impossible, unless judicial blindness as the means of utter destruction to the party, has seized upon the Congress. The second sober thought—the reaction which always succeeds so violent a tempest as we are passing through, will right-up the American people, and will be the death of Radicalism.

The Rebellion alias the Revolution.

Truth, like murder will out. Though beaten down and crushed, it will ultimately come forth and be acknowledged. The responsibility of the contest and the war and its consequences, before and during the war, and until very recently, has always been charged by the North upon the South. The South on the other hand has claimed, that it was forced upon her, that it was simply a struggle for self-existence. On the other hand the North always protested until recently, that she moved reluctantly, that she was forced by the South to make war upon her, for the safety of the Union and the defence of the government. This the executive and legistive departments of the government claimed all through the war. It was reiterated every where by the armies of the Union and their leaders.

Now it is boldly affirmed at the North, that the Revolution begun and carried on thus far by the North, is not yet complete—that it must go on until it is completed—until the essential character of the government is changed—until the solidarity of the nation is secured, and distinctions of color and caste are obliterated and the nation is homogeneous. The leaven of ultra abolitionism,—the vilest spirit ever engendered in the human mind—the "irrepresible conflict,"—the lawless, heartless spirit of the "higher law" fantasy, must go on, until its ends are accomplished.

This is precisely the charge made by the South at first and all the time. It was simply to rid herself of and protect herself against this demon spirit, that led to her revolt, and no conflict whatever with the principles of the Constitution or of American Republican liberty!—These principles are as dear to the South to day as they ever were, and her resistance to the spirit of this "higher law" revolution, is as universal in the Southern heart as ever. The abolition of slavery, to which the South yields so readily and universally, is only an incident upon the threshold to this revolution, and is one of its least offensive and least destructive principles. It is the despotic sway of the sword in opposition to law and constitutional right—the propagation of fanaticism and pseudo philanthrophy—a revival of the Mohammedan despotism upon the free soil of America, which propagates its infidelity and its fanaticism by the sword, against which the Southern mind revolted, and against which it still revolts. The great error of the South was the unconstitutional attempt to protect herself against it by a resort to secession. In the Union she was stronger, and her efforts to stay the madness of the times more potent.

The Tenure of office bill recently passed by Congress should have been framed the Chronicle admits, and we presume was so framed, to secure the offices of the government to those who are called "the friends of the Union," i. e. the Radicals. If this is not a misnomer, there is no meaning in language. We should like to know in what sense ultra Radicals are "friends of the Union," or what kind of a Union are they friends of.

Lime as a Fertilizer.

We place on our first page to-day, an interesting correspondence between Drs. Ramsay and Powell on the above subject, and one in which our planters are deeply interested. Dr. Powell in connection with Col. J. W. Wilson, as advertised in the Sentinel, is engaged largely in the manufacture of lime in Catawba, and they furnish it to farmers at extremely low prices.—The proper use of lime would greatly benefit our lands and would render the use of more costly fertilizers less expensive.

Our planters must look to this matter. The smallness and high price of labor, especially on the thin grain lands of our State, will force our farmers to abandon farming altogether, unless they resort to the small farm plan and extensive fertilizing.

We learn that the raw-bone phosphate is a valuable fertilizer for our lands, and that its benefits are permanent. Our readers will observe that the fertilizers are extensively advertised in the Sentinel.

NORTH CAROLINA LEGISLATURE.

SENATE.

MONDAY MORNING, Jan. 28.

The Senate was called to order at 10½ o'clock. The Speaker designated Messrs. Hall, Willey and Cowles as the Committee on Federal relations.

Mr. Cunningham, from the Committee on Propositions and Grievances, to whom was referred a memorial in favor of the late Sheriff of Camden County, reported unfavorably. Concurred in.

Mr. Brown, from the Committee on the Judiciary to whom was referred a bill to amend the Constitution of the State, reported a substitute for the same, which was ordered to be printed.

RESOLUTIONS AND BILLS.

Mr. Gash, a bill to secure the right of redemption for lands sold under execution. Ordered to be printed and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

A communication relative to the Washington mission, addressed to the Governor, from Hon. Bedford Brown, was read for the information of the Senate.

Mr. Leach arose to a question of privilege.—He read from the Standard, quoting from the Charlotte Democrat, an attack made on himself charging him with being an old political trickster and office-seeker.

He regretted that the Editor of the Standard had seen proper to quote, with seeming commendation, statements so utterly destitute of truth; and then proceeded to vindicate himself. He showed by reference to the journal and public records of the country, and by his public acts and speeches, as well as by his political antecedents, and his frank and open avowal of his sentiments on every public measure, for the last twenty years, during which time, he had been with but short intermission in public life, that both the charges were false, and wholly without foundation, citing, in detail, numerous instances in proof of their falsity. He closed by paying a high compliment to Col. Brown and the other Commissioners.

On motion of Mr Hill, the bill to provide artificial arms or commutation in lieu thereof, when the limb cannot be worn, was taken up under the suspension of the rules, passed its second reading amended on its third reading. Mr. Harris, of Rutherford, called for the yeas and nays, and on motion of Mr. Hall, it was referred to the committee on Propositions and Grievances.

HOMESTEAD BILL.

The bill granting freehold homesteads to the citizens of this State being the special order, was taken up, amended and the question recurring on the passage of the bill on its third reading, on motion of Mr. Wilson, the ayes and nays were called and it passed by a vote of 38 to 6, and ordered to be engrossed.

On motion of Mr. McRae, the rules were suspended and the bill to incorporate the Edinburg Medical College in the County of Robinson, was taken up and passed its second readings, and on motion of Mr. Avery, it was recommitted to the Committee on Education, and ordered to be printed.

On motion of Mr. Love, the rules were suspended and the bill providing for the relief of the estate of the late Hon. L. O'B. Branch, was taken up and referred to the Committee on Claims.

On motion of Mr. Avery, the rules were suspended and the bill to protect landlords against insolvent tenants was taken up, ordered to be printed and made the special order at 12 o'clock Wednesday next.

Mr. Avery, by leave, introduced a resolution proposing to raise a joint select committee to take into consideration the policy of remodeling the Judicial system of North Carolina in such a manner as to make twelve Judicial Districts of the State and three divisions of four districts each. Adopted.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

Bill to protect property sold under execution from sacrifice. This bill was discussed at considerable length by Messrs. Covington and Speed, Mr. Covington making the opening speech. He favored the bill in its original form, but felt bound to oppose it as it had been amended. If the Senate would agree to modify it to suit his views he would cheerfully support it, and offered an amendment which was adopted. Mr. Speed made a strong and touching appeal in support of the bill. [We regret we are unable to publish the speech in full, at this time.] Its further consideration was postponed for the present, and

On motion of Mr. Wiggins, the Senate adjourned until to-morrow at 10½.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

MONDAY, January 28th, 1867.

The House was called to order at 10½ o'clock A. M.

Dr. P. T. Henry, Commoner from Bertie, appeared and was qualified.

Mr. Latham of Washington presented a petition from citizens of Tyrrell county, praying that H. B. Norman, Sheriff of said county be authorized to collect arrears of taxes. Referred.

RESOLUTIONS INTRODUCED.

By Mr. Whitfield, a resolution in regard to testing the loyalty of the Cotton Tax.

By Mr. Latham of Washington, resolutions in favor of Amos Pitford, Wilson Cherry, Eugene Burruss and Jordan Simpson. [To refund taxes overpaid.]

By Mr. Crawford of Macon, a resolution in favor of Thos. Siler, former agent of the Western Turnpike Road.

By Mr. Stevenson, Resolutions proposing a Constitutional Convention. (These were referred to the Committee on Federal Relations, and will appear hereafter.)

By Mr. Peebles, a joint resolution of inquiry, requesting the opinion of the Supreme Court, now in session, as to the power of the General Assembly to repeal or modify the ordinance passed by the late Convention, commonly known as "the Stay Law."

Messrs. Peebles, Waugh, Long and Davis addressed the House in support of the resolution.

Messrs. Dargan and McKay opposed its passage Pending the discussion of this resolution, the special order for 12 o'clock, viz: "a bill to establish a Penitentiary;' was postponed, and made a special order for Tuesday, the 5th. of February next.

On motion of Mr. Dargan, the resolutions under discussion was laid on the table, as follows:

BILLS.

By Mr. Richardson, a bill for the benefit of Daniel Johnson, Sr., of Bladen County.

By Mr. Latham, of Washington, a bill to incorporate the Trustees of the Lowell Colored School Society, in the county of Washington.

By Mr. Garriss, a bill to incorporate the town of Nahunta, in Wayne county.

By Mr. Patton, a bill to authorize the formation of the English and American Vine Growing and Manufacturing Company.

Sundry engrossed bills from the Senate had their first reading in the House. Of these, the following passed also their second and third readings under a suspension of the rules, viz: a bill concerning the town of Warrenton, and a bill authorizing the Justices of Warren county to sell certain property, &c.

On motion of Mr. Latham of Craven, the rules were suspended, and the bill to incorporate New Berne Lodge No. 245 Free and Accepted Masons.

A message from the Senate announced the concurrence of that body in a proposition from the House, to raise a joint select committee on Federal Relations.

Messrs. McNair, Davis and Logan were appointed the House branch of this Committee.

On motion of Mr. Waugh, resolutions in relation to Hon. Jefferson Davis, (introduced on Friday last, by Mr. Williams, of Martin,) were taken up and referred to this committee.

[The Reporter omitted to notice in the proceedings of Friday last, the introduction, by Mr. Williams, of Martin, of the resolutions, expressive of sympathy for Mr. Davis, and proposing to petition for his release. Their consideration was postponed, that they might be referred to a Committee on Federal Relations which had not then been constituted.]

The House concurred in a message from the Senate proposing to raise a Joint Select Committee to consider the expediency of remodeling the Judicial system of the State, and then adjourned to the usual hour to-morrow.

THE NEW TEST-OATH BILL.—The well-informed Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Gazette says:

"If the bill should receive the sanction of two-thirds of both Houses, and the Supreme Court should declare it to be unconstitutional, and therefore refuse to comply with its requirements, (which will doubtless be the case,) there can be now no longer a doubt that Congress at its next session would resort to impeachment of the Judges simultaneously with a similar process against the Executive. The naked power of the House to impeach, and the Senate, to try executive and judicial officers, is relied upon as authority enough by the revolutionists to annihilate the balances of the Constitution and usurp the whole power of the country. It has been well said that although there is not a statesman, in the proper sense of the term, among the Radicals in Congress, cunning politicians are abundant enough. There is no lack of ingenious contrivances to accomplish their end, but these in their ultimate bearing are manifestly destructive of their own interests, as well as that of the country at large; and herein we discover the unmistakable distinction between statesmanship and political quackery."

A writer to the Wilmington Journal, from Mount Airy, N. C., says: "If the people of Wilmington and Fayetteville desire a railroad connection with this section of the State, and an ultimate extension to the salt and plaster banks of South-western Virginia, the terminus of the Western Road must be either at Greensboro' or High Point. From Greensboro' to Mount Airy, via Salem, is 69 miles; from High Point to Mount Airy via Salem, is 60 miles; making only a difference of 9 miles."

STEVENS'S RETREAT.—This proposed abandonment of a darling scheme is a concession that the temper of the House is not as ultra as it has been hoped on the one side and feared on the other.—National Intelligencer.

Nathaniel P. Willis, the author, poet, and editor of the Home Journal, whose health had been pronounced convalescent, died in New York, Jan. 21st, age 60 years.

Our Washington Correspondence.

WASHINGTON CITY, Jan. 1867.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—It was a well-deserved honor recently awarded to one of the worthy sons of your State by the "National Equal Rights Colored League Association," at its meeting in this city, when it resolved that, as there was to be no distinction on account of color, they would elect some of their white frinds to honorary membership, Chas. Sumner, Thad. Stevens, Fred. Douglass and W. W. Holden were among the number elected. Now, this is what I call giving "honor to whom honor is due." W. W. Holden and Fred. Douglass!—arcades ambo. It looks well, and if Fred. don't object to the association of names, who should?

I have lived among your people, and claim to know something of them. I have read Wheeler's Compilation and Hawks' History, as well as Gaston's unparralleled song, "The Old North State Forever." I have heard it sung by your young men and maidens, yes, have even joined in myself with "sweet accord," with all the enthusiasm its stirring strains are calculated to inspire. I know somewhat of their clannish propensities, how they appreciate honors accorded abroad to her sons as honors done to themselves, and hence, I am well assured that this act of the National Equal Rights Colored League Association, will be duly appreciated by them.

W. W. Holden, Presidentia gratia, (ex) Governor of North Carolina and Honorary member of the National Equal Rights Colored League Association,—there is honor for you!

A North Carolinian, at my elbow, tells me that the Governor's radicalism has been so extreme lately, as to disgust even those he has been making "cat's paws" of for the last two or three years, and that the number of his friends and supporters has grown small by degrees and beautifully less, but what matters it, now that this magnificent addition has been made to his titles.

Not long since, the distinguished subject of this sketch, was nominated to some small mission, but the Senate thought his conversion to radicalism too recent to justify a confirmation, and so rejected him. It was to no purpose that he claimed to have been a "Union man, first, last and all the time." The ordinance of secession, which was to have taken North Carolina out of the Union, still existed with his name affixed to it. It was claimed that it was put there under duress. But, alas! there, also, was his record which showed him to have done his part in educating the people of his State up to secession, and further that he followed the fortunes of the Confederacy up to the battle of Gettysburg, when the tide set in so strongly against them that it required no prophet, or the son of one, to tell what the result would be. True, he had quarreled with all the leaders, State and Confederate, from the commencement to the end of the rebellion, but, up to the time mentioned above, it was because his schemes would better insure success than theirs, and so, alas! all his explanations would not do, and your distinguished fellow citizen had to "stay out in the cold," along with those who would not then, and do not now, believe that Thad. Stevens and his negro——house-keeper are more capable of governing the country than Andrew Johnson.

Alas, it pained the heart of your correspondent, and loyal men everywhere, to see one who had sacrificed so much—even the respect of every honorable man in the State, to obtain a much coveted prominence, and then to be cast aside as no better than an unbelieving rebel.—Why, sir, his condition was most pitiable. The Democrats North or South did'nt want him and the Radicals would'nt have him! His case was not unlike that of one Jno. S., of whom I heard while sojourning at Wilmington some years ago. The story goes that one Jim M. was going down Front street, in that place, one night and hearing an awful groaning under the steps of the Baptist church he stopped to ascertain the cause; seeing nobody, he called out to know who it was in such deep distress. A sepulchral voice responded: "I am the Devil and I'm troubled about Jno. S. He has been to the Episcopal Methodist and they turned him out; he went to the Protestant Methodist and they turned him out; he went to the Baptist and they have turned him out and now he's coming to me and I don't want him."

But, sir, we may now dry our eyes. Our friend's late efforts have been crowned with success. He has been publicly recognised as a fit associate for negroes and now I have no doubt were he nominated Minister to Hayti or Liberia this endorsement of the National Equal Rights Colored League Association (I love to write it out in full) would secure his confirmation.

For the Sentinel.

Messrs. Editors of the Sentinel:—

GENTLEMEN: Some weeks ago you published a communication from a Southern lady, in reply to some objections which had been raised in her hearing, against spending so much money on the graves of our "Confederate dead," while the widows and orphans of many of them were in destitute circumstances. Every fibre of my heart responded to what she said, for I had, in common with other members of the Memorial Association, been more than once discouraged by similar remarks from gentlemen whose opinions we respected, and from whom we hoped for assistance. Most of these were doubtless sincere in their wish, that such money as they felt able to give, should be spent for the relief of the living, and spoke in no spirit of disrespect to our honored dead. We can, indeed, raise no nobler monument to their memory than by giving their loved ones the care and kindness they would perhaps have never needed from strangers, had our soldiers been spared to them. I therefore venture, through you, to call attention to a volume entitled "Southern Poems of the War," recently published by Miss Emily Mason, of Virginia, the proceeds from the sale of which are to be devoted to the education, as teachers, of one hundred girls, the daughters of deceased Confederate soldiers. The first edition, of three thousand, has been sold, and the second is now in press. Miss Mason has already placed several girls at good schools, and in a letter which I have just received from her says: "While waiting for money from my book and other sources I beg in all schools, of every denomination, which I know of or encounter, for my daughters to be taken in gratuitously; this leaves me only their clothing and travelling expenses; these, however, are heavy, especially the latter. So far, I have provided for eight girls, but have not yet been able to get them all to their several destinations. Some friends of mine in St. Louis have provided places for ten or twelve more, and I think the Southern Relief Association of that place will furnish clothing for them. I have not yet selected the girls for these places; if you know of any clever ones, needy, of good family, and willing to be instructed to teach, let me know." In another letter she says: "I have two girls at Flat Rock, N. C., ready to come to me as soon as I can raise money to pay their travelling expenses. Can you not assist me by getting free tickets for them over your State roads?" I have made application to the Presidents of our Railroads, and doubt not that they will cheerfully comply with Miss Mason's request. But many, if not most of these poor children cannot, for want of proper clothing, avail themselves of these advantages, and all persons who feel desirous of aiding in this good work can do so by remitting to Miss Emily V. Mason, care of Jno. Murphy & Co., 182 Baltimore St., Baltimore, Md., the price of her book, and as much more as they feel inclined to contribute. All letters thus addressed, whether containing orders or money, will be promptly attended to. The book is in three styles, one priced $1,50, another $2,00, and a third $3.00. Those who prefer giving material for clothing can either send it to me, care of Mrs. Henry W. Miller, Raleigh, N. C. or address me at Boon Hill, Johnston County, letting me know that it can be had on application, if not convenient to forward it. I will hold all such material subject to Miss Mason's order, to be forwarded to her or the friends of the girls, or be made up under my own directions, in which case the work will always be given to the families of deceased soldiers, when not done gratuitously.

Very respectfully, yours,
MARY BAYARD CLARKE.

Letter from Washington.

Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24, 1867.

An immense throng was at the House of Representatives this morning in the expectation of hearing a speech from Stevens in closing up debate on the enabling bill proposed by that representative, but they were disappointed. Stevens had nothing to say, except, after the close of a long speech from Raymond and a shorter one from Shellaberger, to announce that, in consequence of the great diversity of opinion existing on his side of the House on the question of reconstruction, he would probably on to-morrow move to lay it on the table, and thus relieve members of its burden. This he announced he would do if he did not change his mind, and judging from the fact that the bill thus far has proven, like other insane topics which have been under consideration, somewhat of an elephant on the hands of the Radical party, they will be glad enough to get rid of it. Its defeat insures the downfall of Stevens in his power. If he gives way in this manner all his influence with his party will be gone. It has already become very weak in comparison with last winter's experience.

It was expected that Raymond would make an extreme radical speech to-day, but there was some disappointment on that score. He was Republican enough, and angry enough with the South for refusing the constitutional amendment; but did not go the great length that was attributed to him. It is not the first time that Raymond has disappointed those who depended upon his political consistencies.

There was some excitement in the House to-day, occasioned by a passage of words between Mr. Cooper, formerly the acting private secretary of the President, and now representative of Tennessee, and Mr. Kelley, of Pennsylvania. Mr. Cooper gave the lie direct to Mr. Kelley twice in the course of the discussion between them, which originated by Kelley denouncing the President as a usurper. The personal dispute was stopped by the Speaker ruling it out of order as having no relation to the discussion before the House at that time.

1867. "THE WORLD" 1867.

THE ATTENTION OF THE PUBLIC IS INVITED to the claims of "THE WORLD" as one of the leading public journals of the country. It is the chief organ of the Democratic Party of the United States, and the foremost advocate of the immediate restoration of the Union. Its highest merit consists in its character as An enterprising and Trustworthy Newspaper.

The next year bids fair to be a more critical one in the history of our free institutions, than even any of the eventful ones that have preceded it. The first requisite for an intelligent judgment of public affairs is a full and authentic account of facts as they transpire. These THE WORLD always aims to give with conscientious accuracy, and with equal fullness and fidelity, whether they make for or against its own views of public policy. Prompt activity in spreading before its readers every kind of news in which any part of the public takes an interest, is the first duty of a newspaper, and the facilities of THE WORLD for discharging this obligation are unsurpassed by those of any journal in the United States. Whatever else it may fail in, it certainly will not fail to furnish the news, nor to supply it with such promptitude, spirit, freshness, abundance, variety, accuracy, and candor, that no class of readers can miss anything of interest which they wish to find. THE WORLD will publish documents and arguments prepared by political foes just as freely as those prepared by political friends; making its own comments on them, of course, but never suppressing or garbling them because they are calculated to damage its own party. Adverse arguments which it cannot refute, it is content to leave to make their full impression. THE WORLD adopts this rule because it believes no other is honest; because it conceives that its first duty to its readers is to keep them thoroughly informed on every passing subject of importance.

FERTILIZERS FOR SPRING CROPS.

WE beg to inform the trade and planters of North Carolina and Virginia, that we are prepared to furnish them with the most approved FERTILIZERS, on the most accommodating terms. We will have a stock of genuine PERUVIAN GUANO, purchased direct from the Agent of the Peruvian Government.

We have now in store, for immediate delivery, 325 tons BRADLEY'S SUPER PHOSPHATE OF LIME, which won for itself such an enviable reputation in the Cotton and Tobacco counties of North Carolina and Virginia, last season, proving itself equal, and in many important respects, superior to the Peruvian Guano. We give an analysis of it as ascertained by Dr. Hayes, one of the most eminent Chemists in the country:

Results of Analyses Made of Bradley's Patent Super-Phosphate of Lime, as now sold by Wm. L. Bradley.

100 PARTS CONSIST OF
Moisture	5.30
Prepared animal matter, salts of Ammonia, fatty substances and Humus	38.50
Bone Phosphates of Lime, Magnesia and Iron	36.80
(Soluble Phosphates of do. 16 6-10.)
Sulphate of Lime	16.50
Salts	.20
Insoluble	2.60
	99.90

The animal matter afforded 4 2-10 parts of Ammonia when it was decomposed, and, as will be seen, nearly one-half of the Bone Phosphate is soluble.

After many analyses of your Super-Phosphate of Lime, made during the last few months, I have found your standard of quality full equal to that of any you have ever sold in former years; and I am satisfied that you include the correct principles in the manufacture. Respectfully,

A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.

We refer to the following gentlemen who tested its merits last season:

WM. PRIMROSE,
T. Y. M. C. A.

Kittrell's Springs Institute, under the Presidency of Rev. C. B. Riddick, opens finely this session. About 120 students had entered at last accounts.

A band of robbers visited the premises of Mr. W. M. Nelson, on Dawson's Creek in Craven County, below Newbern, on Friday night, and stole his pork, meat, &c.

The Newbern Commercial says, there were a few fresh white shad in the Newbern market on Friday last, which sold at $1 each.

Wake Forest College opens encouragingly this session. The exact number of students we have not learned.

A grand cotillion party was given in Newbern on Thursday night last, to raise funds for the relief of Mrs. Jefferson Davis and family.

Twelve constables for the County of Anson were elected by the County Court week before last.

The Wadesboro Argus says, some apprehension is felt in Anson County, that labor will be hard to obtain and insufficient for the wants of the county the present year. A number of hands have gone into the turpentine region and to Mississippi and other Southern States.

A young man named Hardy Perry, fell from an upper window of the store of Messrs. McLean & Co., of Newbern, on Friday last, striking his head on the pavement. He was much injured, but it is hoped he will recover.

The Wadesboro Argus, speaking of a North Carolina currency, says, South Carolina since the war undertook to furnish her people with a currency, but her Treasury notes are worth now only 80 to 90 cts. in the dollar, of greenbacks.

Mr. Vincent Dixon, of Craven, was arrested on Friday last, by U. S. Marshal Kehoe, of Newbern, on a warrant issued by R. F. Lehman, U. S. Com., on a charge of unlawfully and forcibly detaining in his custody and control, a child of color against her will and consent.

The Wadesboro Argus says that the "secret societies" forming in Union County, are none other than the "Red Strings" organizations, and their objects the very worst.

DEFACED GREENBACKS.—Perhaps it is not known that defaced or mutilated greenbacks or National currency whether bills or fractional currency, if holes are burnt in them or small pieces torn off, they do not pass for the face of them, but are required by the U. S. Treasury to be discounted, sometimes pretty severly by the Banks. Whether this is right, no one pretends to affirm, but the requisition is made nevertheless; and hence when mutilated bills are sent to us, those who send them must bear the loss.

BLOODY SCHEME.—Mr. Jones, a State Senator of the Maryland Legislature, in a recent speech, said:

"In case of impeachment by the present House of Representatives, the Executive is bound to defend himself, and not to submit to the overthrow of the Constitution, but call upon the army and navy and the people to sustain him; and they will sustain him; and if the attempt is persisted in, it will produce a civil war to which the last would be no comparison. It would deluge the land in blood, and the Northern States would suffer the desolations of war upon their own soil."

The National Intelligencer says:

We have nothing to hope from the temper to the men who now control Congress and the Radical party. But we know that the violent assumptions of Congressional power will not be upheld by a free people and consequently we would have the ultraists run their race. The more violent, the more aggressive, the more reckless of the constitutional limits of their power, the better it will be for the country. Already there is a marked discrepancy between the utterances of Congress and those of the bulk of the press of the country, and the Stevens and Boutwell haranguers will be in due time brought to their senses in the only way they can be reached, by finding that their power has departed from them.

A PROPOSITION.

IN WHICH YOU ARE INTERESTED.

I PROPOSE for the protection of the citizens of Raleigh and surrounding country, against the imposition of those so-called Cost Stores, to furnish each and every person, the New York Cost of any goods they may want to buy; by this means they can tell whether they are buying goods at Cost or paying a profit on them.

Call before going to any of those Cost Stores so-called, and let me give you a memorandum of Cost prices.

Most of my large stock I will sell at cost but I have goods that I will not sell in that way, and neither will those merchants who make such a flourish about selling at Cost.

No merchant in this place has purchased his Goods any cheaper than I bought mine. Any assertion to the contrary is false; and I will guarantee to sell Goods as low as any Cost House. All I ask is an opportunity to prove the truthfulness of this assertion.

Finances.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.

The following is a statement of the week's Finances: Fractional currency received $407,000. Issued $520,000. National currency issued $104,275.

Disbursements: War Department $1,814,808. Navy $2,943,976. Interior $211,602.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.

In the Senate the bill authorizing the Baltimore and Potomac Railroad, to bring a branch to Washington passed.

The Committee of Conference on pension Agents reported and the bill passed. It removes all agents appointed since the first of July last.

The President was called on for Gen. Wilson's report of the capture of Mr. Davis.

In the House the Secretary of the Treasury was ordered to suspend sales of confiscated whiskey unless the price equals the tax.

Mr. Stevens' enabling bill was taken up, and Mr. Ross made a powerful speech in opposition to it.

The debate developed the fact that the Reconstruction Committee had had no session this term. That the Republican party had not agreed on a plan of reconstruction.

A sharp colloquy occurred between Messrs. Chandler and Ashley.

The latter was goaded into the following sentiment: "If there is a State of the American Union, in which there is not a loyal man except black men, I would clothe the black man with the franchise and other rights under the government." (Applause on the floor and in the galleries, and some hisses.)

Mr. Ashley continued denouncing the assumption of those, who during the entire war, were in secret alliance with rebels, coming here and joining hands with the apostate at the other end of the avenue.

Mr. Winfield denounced the above as a base and unfounded slander.

Mr. Hunter said: "So far as I am concerned it is a base lie."

The Speaker said that Mr. Hunter's words were out of order.

Mr. Randall said: "nevertheless true."

The Speaker decided Mr. Randall's remarks out of order.

A vote of censure on Hunter was passed by 84 to 33.

After which the House adjourned with the understanding, that the enabling act is to be discussed Monday under the five minutes rule.

A Chicago dispatch to the Tribune says that Mr. Crosby made six hundred and fifty thousand dollars profit by his lottery.

Washington Matters.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.

The New York Herald's Washington special says: The New Orleans riot commission will report this week. The report will not be very favorable to Louisiana. It says that no instigation has been found for the hostile and disloyal character recently attributed to that section.

Manufactured under the formula originated in 1854 and patented by

BAUGH & SONS,

SOLE PROPRIETORS, AT THE

Delaware River Chemical Works,

PHILADELPHIA, U. S. A.

This old established MANURE is manufactured from Bones that have not been burned or steamed, and it contains all their original organic matter. It is active in its operation, and is a fertilizer of great durability. It does not exhaust the soil like Peruvian Guano, but on the contrary permanently improves it. Previous to 1861 it was introduced into the Southern States to considerable extent, and again in 1865, where it has been used with remarkable success upon Cotton, Corn, Tobacco, and all Crops.

A trial will convince any planter of its merits.—Pamphlets containing well-known Southern evidence furnished upon application to New York or Philadelphia offices.

LIFE INSURANCE.

MANY insure their lives because they see the folly of neglecting to do so. Many who do not insure, argue that it is folly to insure. Which is right? If those who do not insure can cite instances of the harm done by a policy of life Insurance, if they can point out men who have lost $5,000 to $100,000 by Life Insurance, then upon proof of same, we must believe them. Hundreds of instances can readily be shown where parties have been benefitted to this extent. In North Carolina there are some Widows and Children ready to testify to the good resulting from a life Insurance on their only earthly dependence.

The "Ætna Life Co., in loosing $23,000 the past year has relieved want—and now with over $4,000,000 of assets—offers sure protection to all those who will avail themselves of her liberal terms, by calling on

HILLSBORO' MILITARY ACADEMY.

THIS well known and popular Institution is once more in successful operation, and is prepared for the reception of Cadets at any time.—It is under the direction of

GEN. R. E. COLSTON,

a graduate, and for fifteen years, (up to the commencement of the war) a

Professor of the Virginia

MILITARY INSTITUTE,

and a colleague of

STONEWALL JACKSON,

The course of the Institution is that of the Virginia Military Institute, and is such as to make the Academy a great

POLYTECHNIC SCHOOL.

A school of theoretical and applied science, in which Languages and Literature also receive a due share of attention. The discipline and instructions are on a Complete Military Basis.

The Faculty is for the present organized as follows:

Superintendent and Professor of Military History, Strategy and Political Economy, and instructor of Infantry and Cavalry tactics, GEN. R. E. COLSTON, late Professor of French, and of Military History, Strategy and Political Economy at the Virginia Military Institute, and late Brig. General C. S. A.

Until the appointment of additional Professors, Gen. Colston takes charge of the Department of French and English studies and Belles Lettres.

Professor of Natural and Experimental Philosophy, Ordnance, Gunnery and instructor of Artillery tactics, Major D. TRUEHEART, Graduate of the Virginia Military Institute in 1850—afterwards Assistant Professor of the Va. Military Institute—attached to the United States Coast Survey—late Major and Chief of Artillery in the C. S. Army.

Professor of Mathematics, Civil and Military Engineering, Architecture, Topographical and Industrial Drawing, and Assistant Instructor of Infantry tactics, Maj. W. A. OBENCHAIN, "first distinguished Graduate," of his Class in the Virginia Military Institute, and for efficient and meritorious services during the war, promoted Captain of Engineers in the late C. S. Army.

Professor of Chemistry, Agricultural Chemistry, Geology and Mineralogy, Col. LEWELLYN HOLTON, "Distinguished graduate" of West Point Military Academy, and late Chief of Artillery to Hardee's Corps.

Professor of Latin, French, Ethics and Belles Lettres, to be appointed shortly.

Surgeons Drs. E. & W. S. STRUDWICK.

New appointments will be made, and the Chairs now filled will be subdivided as soon as the number of Cadets makes it desirable.

Applicants for Professorships must be gentlemen of Scientific and Military education, who have served in the field.

Candidates for admission as Cadets are advised to come without delay. Until the 1st. of February next, all those Cadets present at the Academy, will be pushed forward in their studies irrespective of classes, so as to enable them, at that time, to enter the most advanced classes for which they may be found qualified.

By coming at once they may gain an entire year in the term of their education.
